

Play and Politics and Computers

Miguel Sicart
Playful Design 2014

Today

- Go!
- Another word for appropriation
- Critical thinking
- Action
- Design
- Politics

WAR

IS TERRORISM WITH A BIGGER BUDGET

critical thinking

Critical Play

1

Shout METAKETTLE!
to start the game.

2

Start your own team by shouting an animal name - eg. "COW! COW! COW!" or join an already established team by linking arms with them.

If you meet another team shouting the same animal name, you automatically join teams

3

Get other people on your team by completely encircling them with members of your team

Chant your team's animal name during the game

4

The person who formed the last surviving animal team wins*

Things to...

task:
make a folk game
political

Play is a privileged space

- Autotelic
- that's why it allows for the expressions that would otherwise be forbidden
- tension in the nature of the encounter

Designing political play

key concepts:
agonism
carnivalesque

Agonism

- Carl DiSalvo
- Forever looping confrontation
- Politics vs. the political

Carnavalesque

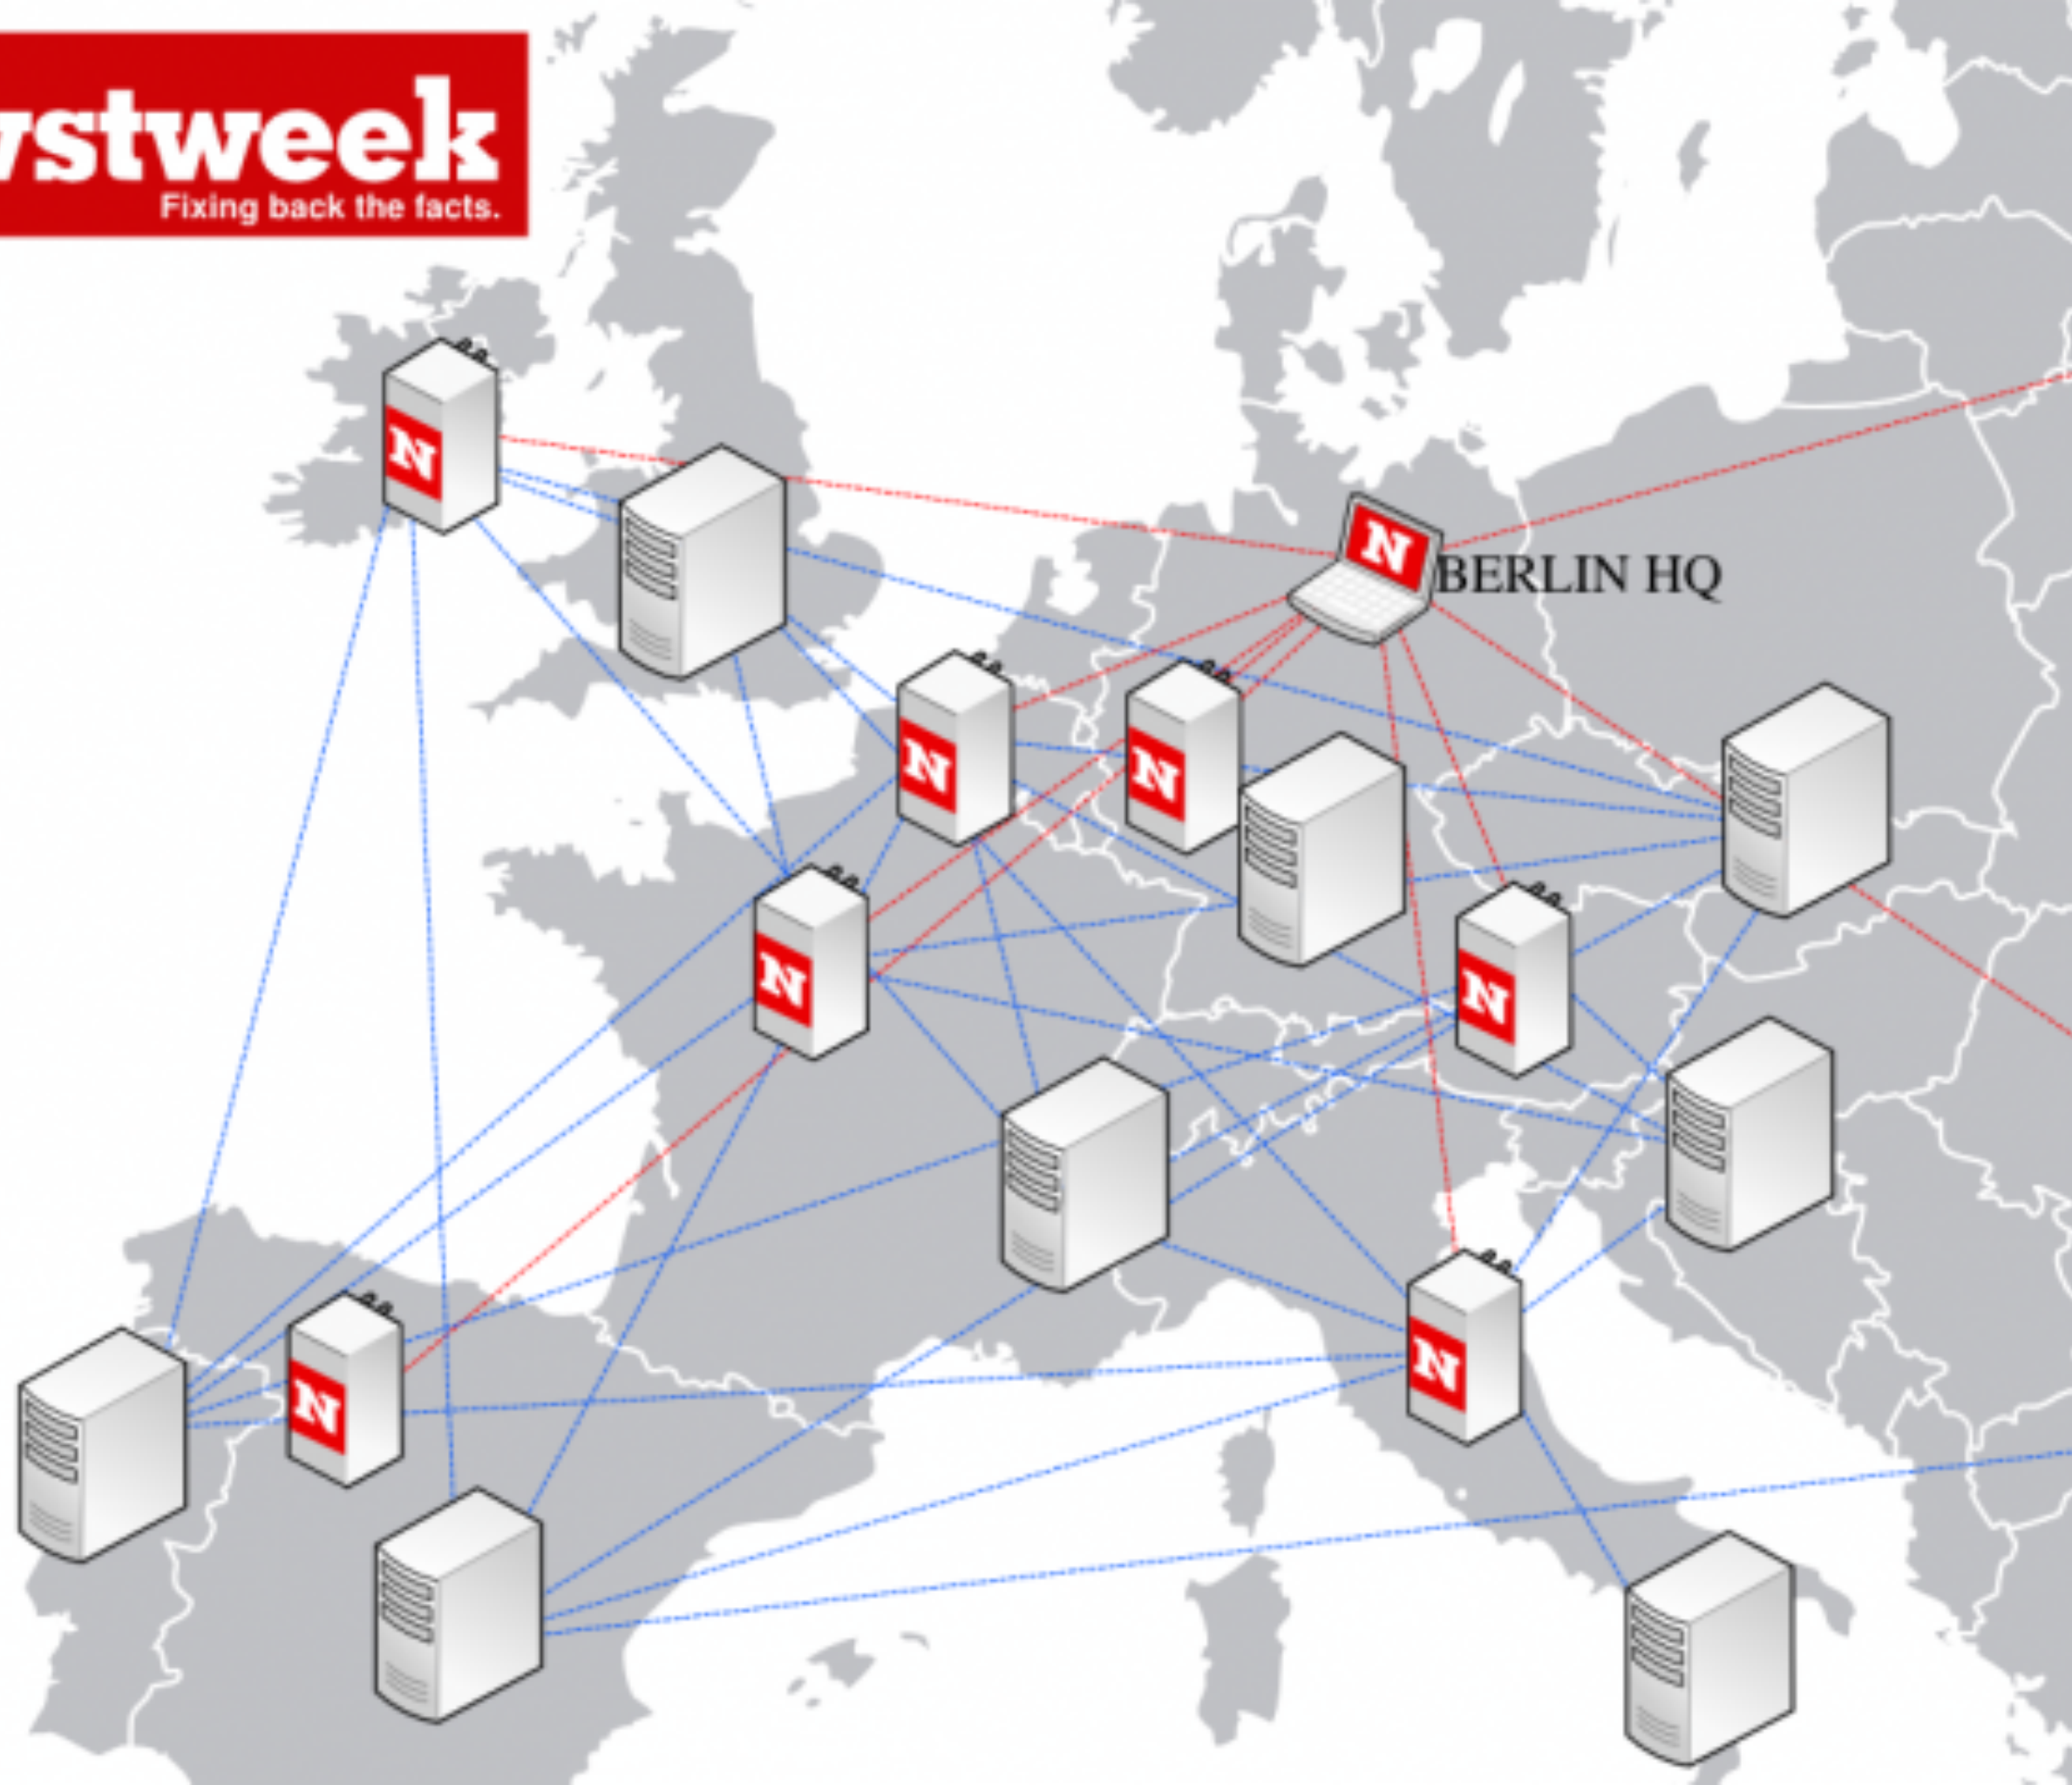

- Bakhtin
- Modernity starts with Middle Ages Carnival
- Expression and Freedom against the political

Newstweek

Fixing back the facts.

news flow
control net

Putting Politics into Play

- Identify confrontations between the political and politics
- Appropriate them through play
- Make the action political

Now

Go make something

